Ánandanagar --- Its Unique Spiritual Traits

Ácharya Narayananda Abadhuuta

On Ánandapurńimá of 1969, which was also Baba's birthday, many workers of the Sańgha has gone to Ranchi. At noon, Baba gave a general audience. In the evening, he called to his room those who had gone from Ánandanagar. After discussion on various matters, he told them:

“You are very fortunate in having the opportunity of working at Ánandanagar. This land is very old and holy. If you sit to pray on any block of stone at Ánandanagar, you will feel immediately that your mind is becoming concentrated”.

We have further learnt from his conversation that Krśńa had stepped at Ánandanagar on his way to Magadha with Bhima for killing Jarásandha.

So we find that whenever Tárakabrahma (the Supreme Being as the deliverer) comes on earth as Mahasambhuuti, he touches Ánandanagar. Those initiated in the Kápálíka way of worship have to go to a place of cremation on new moon nights for meditation. But Baba has said that such worship can be performed at any place of Ánandanagar. And there is no need to go to a cremation ground.

There are many tantric centres at Ánandanagar. Over the ages, many spiritual seekers have practiced meditation at these centres and had intense spiritual experience, ultimately obtaining deliverance.
